

Billionaire, Let's Divorce Novel Chapter 13 To 14

---

C13

Curious, she got out of bed, left the room, and went outside to find out. However, there was no surprise waiting for her. Instead, the servants were discussing in groups of twos and threes.

“What are you talking about?” What happened? “

Xiao Yue ran over, “Young mistress, why are you awake?”

“Why didn't you sleep when I woke up?” said Suli oak.

Xiao Yue said, “I heard something happened! The butler woke us all up! “

“What happened? Hurry up and help! “

“We don't know what happened, we only know that something went wrong in the east. “The steward told us all to get up, just in case something happens so we could rush over. Who would still be able to sleep right now?”

Su Li thought about it and said, “East side? Isn't there a strange house there? Do you think the monsters in there came out? “

“Young Mistress, don't scare me. We're in the modern world, where did these monsters come from?”

“I was just joking. Why don't we go take a look?”

“Alright.”

After they said this, they prepared to walk towards the east side. Although it was already late at night, the manor was brightly lit.

At this moment, a servant shouted to Xiao Yue, "Xiao Yue, don't go! The butler ordered us to wait here!" How could this Xiao Yue be so stupid as to leave the party without permission?

You think that you are so amazing just because you have the backing of a young mistress?

Xiao Yue said as she walked, "I will be accompanying Young Mistress on her errands, just you all wait!"

He had them come to the east side, and even before they got close to that strange room, they could smell the scent of blood.

The air was filled with the smell of blood and disinfectant. People came and went, and everyone was walking in a hurry. They were so anxious that they didn't notice the arrival of the oak tree.

Almost everyone was carrying something in their hands, either a medical kit or a basin.

Oak Suli was very curious about what was in the pot.

Just then, someone put the basin on a stool to do something else, and she took the opportunity to go over and see what was in it.

The closer the Suli oak tree got to the basin, the stronger the smell of blood became. She suddenly started panicking, holding onto Xiao Yue with one hand as she slowly walked forward, afraid that she would see something disgusting.

She moved the world inch by inch from the bottom of the basin to the top ... She moved her gaze to the back of the basin and then to the front. Under the light, she could clearly see the turbulent water inside.

That was no ordinary water, but ...

Crimson red blood!

Ah!

Suli Oak let out a cry and subconsciously retreated backwards, stepping on something on the ground that could have been blood or water. If not for Xiao Yue supporting her, she would have fallen to the ground.

“Young Mistress ...” “What’s going on?” Xiao Yue changed from her usual laughing and laughing appearance to being very cautious. She whispered into Su Li’s ear.

Quercus Suli held his breath and shook his head.

The air here was extremely foul, giving her a feeling of wanting to vomit.

Suddenly, someone hit the Suli oak tree.

Then, she heard an unorthodox Mandarin, “Sorry, sorry.”

The Suli oak didn’t even have time to see who hit her before he left.

When she turned around, she saw that behind her was a row of doctors in white coats, some of whom were foreigners with blonde hair and blue eyes.

Suriqui thought that the one who had bumped into her was also a foreigner, and that the Putonghua in that tone should be spoken by a foreigner.

And the room the doctors went to was no other, it was the mysterious room. From a distance, the black door with golden rivets on it was opened.

She had tried so hard to open that door. Now that the door was open, she could easily sneak in.

The Suli oak tree focused on the room. It was very dark, and people could be seen moving around inside. Most of them were doctors in white coats. There were about a dozen medical staff in front of her and behind her.

Was someone hurt?

Seeing this, Su Li and Xiao Yue did not dare move. If it was a normal day when the door was opened, they would definitely take the opportunity to slip in. But now, no one dared to enter.

The reason for that was because those people seemed very frightening, as if they were trying to save a dying person. Suriyawong did not dare to disturb them now, for fear of causing any casualties by his own mistake.

Although she didn't know what they were doing or if they were saving someone, it was better for her not to go.

Although the Suli oak did not dare to enter the door, but she would not easily leave. There were so many medical staff and servants here, no one would pay attention to the Suli oak tree. She could take this opportunity to observe it carefully, and perhaps even see what was inside.

The sound of people's anxious footsteps, low voices, tightly knitted eyebrows, the smell of blood in the air, the dazzling light in the corridor, the mysterious dark room ... Something big had happened here!

Behind the Suli oak tree, the wall, watching the crowd come and go.

Suddenly, she noticed a particularly tall figure in the crowd. The man was wearing a beige windbreaker and walked quickly. He usually had a perfect figure like a model.

The man was not wearing a white coat, Suli thought, and he wondered if he was a doctor. If it was a doctor, then the current doctor's reputation was too high.

He was walking towards the Suli oak tree with an intimidating aura, like an elegant cheetah. To be more precise, he was walking towards that mysterious room.

He had a pair of handsome eyebrows, and the outline of his face was very solid, as if it was created by a master sculptor.

His eyes were deep and filled with a mixed sense of beauty. The look in his eyes gave off a sense of majesty without anger. It was unfathomable, as if he was hiding many past events and secrets.

He was so handsome.

Su Li was totally engrossed in the smell. If it wasn't for the increasingly strong smell of blood in the air, she would have almost forgotten where she was.

These two days, his luck was really good. He always saw a handsome guy.

But unfortunately, she was already married ...

The man did not see or, rather, did not care for the oak. His handsome face had always been tense, and he looked worried.

As the infuriatingly handsome man brushed past the Suli oak tree, he was suddenly struck and his wallet fell off.

Suli oak looked on helplessly as the wallet fell to the ground. He wanted to warn the man, but he didn't stop and only kept walking forward. Even if he was hit, he wouldn't notice at all. It looked like he was really worried.

Who is he? Was what was happening important to him?

The two questions floated into Suli Oak's mind. But she didn't have time to think it through. She quickly picked up her purse from the ground and chased after the man.

The Suli oak tree caught up with the man in quick steps and pulled at the corner of his coat.

The man turned around in displeasure, his handsome face tense.

It was the first time that Qu Li had seen such a handsome man up close, even if it was a perfect work of art! At this moment, her heart seemed to have stopped, from her neck to her ears.

No, Quercus Suli, you are a married woman.

She forced herself to calm down, smiled sweetly and said, "Sir, your wallet dropped." Then she handed the wallet to the man, who was ready to thank her.

Looking at the exquisite leather bag in front of him, the man did not raise his hand. Instead, he stared condescendingly at the Suli oak tree! It was as if he wanted to eat her up.

Suriyawong was confused. Was there something wrong with this man's head? How can I give him a wallet? Sigh, he kept staring at me. Could it be that he has fallen for me?

Two red clouds flew up on the face of the Suli oak tree. His heart was beating even faster.

She handed the purse forward and smiled. "You're welcome. Take it."

The man coldly curled the corner of his mouth, which carried seventy to eighty percent of the evil aura. He looked at the Suli oak tree as if it were a funny joke, his face filled with disdain.

The Suli oak looked up at the man's handsome face, his eyes focused on his thin lips.

The man's thin lips slowly opened. This action was infinitely slowed down in Su Li's mind. She couldn't help but exclaim in her heart, My God, he looks so good when he talks. Even the wriggling of his Adam's apple is so sexy.

The man's voice was very magnetic and low. Even though it carried a hint of displeasure, it still made one feel intoxicated by it. It sounded like wine that had been brewing for many years.

"What are you doing here?" The man sneered.

Let me give you your wallet! What else could they do? She prepared a mental script to say this out loud. However, in the next second, he felt that something was wrong.

Sigh, why was this voice so familiar?

Upon realizing where he had heard this voice before, Chu Feng's jaw dropped. He could not believe his ears.

Why did this voice sound so familiar?

The deep sounds in his ears, the heavy breathing of the man, and the scorching breath of the man all appeared in the mind of the Suli oak tree.

It was as if she had been struck by lightning. Her entire body froze in place. She looked at the man in front of her with astonishment, unable to believe the scene before her eyes.

“I... You? How could this be ... “It will ...”

Suli oak wanted to say something, but suddenly nothing came out. He stammered like his tongue was tied.

Once upon a time, she was always in a daze at night, imagining what that man looked like.

He was cold and mysterious, and every time he met her, he would have to turn off the lights.

Oak Suli had imagined a hundred different kinds of faces, either with a large mole, eyes, or cross-eyed eyes. In short, they were all incredibly ugly faces.

Because she did not believe that if a man was not ugly, how could he not let others see his face?

But now, she believed him. Although she didn't know why he still turned off the lights even though he clearly had no flaws on his face.

But this magnetic voice, this breathtaking aura, this cold tone, who else could it be but her husband?

Suriyawong's heart was filled with mixed feelings, as if he had knocked over a pile of spice bottles. She couldn't say anything. She just stared at Xing Beihan.

In a trance, it was like a dream.

A look of disgust appeared in Xing Beihan's eyes as he looked at the surprised little woman in front of him.

He looked at the Suli oak tree as if it were a huge joke!

Heh, surprised, right?

He knew what this woman was thinking, but he didn't say anything. All of his thoughts were hidden in his black pupils, disappearing within the deep black ...

Others couldn't figure it out.

Xing Beihan stared at her as if she were his prey.

He threatened coldly, "You'd better be smart and leave, or else I'll carry you and throw you out in front of everyone!"

His voice was cold and without any trace of warmth. It was as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over the head of Oak Su Li, who was originally in a good mood.

He had clearly instructed the others not to enter. This woman had openly come here. Was she trying to challenge his bottom line?

If it wasn't for the urgent situation, he wouldn't have the time to mess around and directly carry the woman out like a little chick.

Upon being scolded by Xing Beihan in this way, Su Li took a step back subconsciously and sucked in a breath of cold air.

Why is this man so fierce?

Such an arrogant attitude, such an arrogant face, it was obvious that she was the husband that had been coquettish with her in the dark.

At first, Su Li had been a bit uncertain, but now she was certain that this person was Xing Beihan!

With a stupefied expression, she asked, "What's going on?"

Suli Oak was still in a stupefied state. The repeated shocks made her unable to catch her breath, and she didn't even have the time to think about it carefully.

What was going on?

He hated nosy women!

What a detestable woman!

"Get out!" Xing Beihan glared viciously at Su Li, saying, "Do you want me to say it a second time?"

His face was so cold that there was not a trace of warmth. His eyes revealed a strong disgust and disdain. The corners of his lips curled up slightly, revealing a cruel smile.

Oak instinctively took a step back, bit his lower lip, and slowly loosened his fingers.

Fine, let's go!

It was the same as who wanted to stay here!

So what if this man is handsome? With such a vile temper, it was simply a waste of his face!

All the good feelings he had for Ai Hui had vanished like smoke in thin air. Su Li threw his wallet on the ground and turned around to leave.

His wallet was flung far away and stained with blood on the ground. It was an expensive handicraft, stained with dirt just like that.

She was treated so ruthlessly just because she wanted to return the purse to him with good intentions. Suriyawong felt aggrieved.

Xing Beihan turned a blind eye to it, as if the purse didn't belong to him at all.

Xing Beihan didn't care one bit about Su Li's anger or Su Li's disappointment. His eyes were only focused on the people in the room!

It was all that woman's fault for wasting his time!

Time was of the essence, he would deal with this woman when things were done.

Xing Beihan strode into the room and turned a corner into a wide expanse of space.

The place was bright and filled with people. The air was filled with a sweet and fishy smell...

The night passed.

The birds that had left the nest returned to their nests as the manor gradually regained its calm.

The Suli oak tree went back to the bedroom, still thinking about what had just happened.

It was like a dream.

She never thought that Xing Beihan would actually be so handsome. She thought there was something wrong with his face ...

Since he was so handsome that he could shock the heavens, why bother hiding it? They didn't know each other before. Was there a need to hide?

No matter how he thought about it, he just couldn't figure it out.

There must be someone in that room. Why else would so many doctors enter? Could it be to treat animals?
